BUT GOD!
By Paralee Eadie

I was burdened beneath a load of care,
Paralyzed by fear that held me there.
There was no solution, no help in sight,
Engulfed in darkness with no hint of light.

BUT GOD!

I cried, "This is too much for me to bear.
Is there no hope, no help anywhere?
I cannot continue to live this way,
Hopeless and helpless day after day."

BUT GOD!

Then I heard in my heart that still small voice,
"You are not without hope, nor without choice.
I bore all your burdens on Calvary;
I died on the cross to set you free."

BUT GOD!

There was help!   There was hope!   My heart rejoiced!
Jesus reached out His hand; I made the choice.
I believed Jesus.   I took His hand.
Such peace!   Such strength!   I was able to stand!

BUT GOD!

Each day He is with me.   I give Him my cares.
There is not one burden that He does not bear.
He will never leave me nor let me go.
He took away my fear for He loves me so!
