

FROM YOUR LITTLE GIRL

By Paralee Eadie

My daddy is so strong and brave,
He's not afraid of thunderstorms!
He just puts his arms around me
And makes me feel safe and warm.

My daddy is so very smart,
There's nothing he can't do.
He knows how to fix anything!
He just needs duct tape and some glue.

When I fall down and hurt myself,
He picks me up from where I lay,
Says that boo-boos always get better,
And then kisses my tears away.

We dance together, my dad and me,
Even though he's big and I am small.
He puts my feet on top of his shoes
And we go dancing at the Queen's ball.

Daddy says I'm the prettiest girl.
Shhh - here's something he told me secretly,
He says that his very favorite thing
Is having tea parties with me!

He says that God is a Daddy,
Loving and kind but never grim.
If He's anything like my daddy,
I simply cannot wait to meet Him!

DADDY'S PRAYER

Lord, help me to be the man my child sees - the exact same kind of Father that
You are to me!
