

RED HAT SOCIETY

By Paralee Eadie

Our heads are covered in the color red,
Rich purple is the color of our dress.
We get together to celebrate life,
To put aside all our worries and stress.

We delight in the beauty of being alive,
Take pleasure in making new friends,
And we treasure the ones we already have,
Old friendships that never will end.

The red hat reminds us of Jesus' blood
That was shed on the cross for our sin,
Covering each spot and stain in our lives,
Giving eternal beauty within.

Purple garments speak of royalty,
Because of Him we can laugh and sing.
We revel in all that's been given to us
For we are daughters of the King.
