

SCHOOL MEMORIES

By Paralee Eadie

The days we've all spent together
Have created memories so dear,
Of teachers, and friendships, and laughter
Over year after school year.

We've shared our secrets, hopes, and dreams.
We've done homework and studied for tests.
We've cheered for our teams with school spirit,
Of course, all while fashionably dressed!

Our school days are not yet over.
We have time to make memories yet.
To laugh, and cheer, and strive together
Until each of our goals is met.

While we can't control all memories,
All things that happen along the way,
We've been given the capacity
To choose how they will alter or sway.

So we'll set our hearts in the right direction,
To be good students and good friends,
Making wonderful, lifelong memories
Until our school days are at an end.
