

SUPPORTING OUR TROOPS

By Paralee Eadie

Our troops, so far away from home,
So bravely do they fight,
Standing between us and danger,
Toiling both day and night.

The fight for freedom is their call.
Their lives are on the line
That we might walk in peace at home,
A calling most divine.

For God created man to live
With the freedom of choice,
Thus our troops fight to protect
Those who have no voice.

We battle on our knees in prayer,
Standing with them side by side.
Keep them safe today, dear Lord,
Be their Saviour and their Guide.
