

THE KEY

By Paralee Eadie

God knew you would be a mom
Even before the world began.
He knew each child you would raise,
And for each one He has a plan.

Your child came pre-programmed
With a destiny from the Lord.
Gifts, abilities, and talents
Within each child is stored.

Dear Mom, God gave you a key
To unlock each of these treasures.
The key doesn't turn all at once,
But by a slow, steady measure.

To unlock your child's destiny,
This key will need two hands.
Every day both you and God
Turn the key to unlock His plans.

He will give you all the strength you need
As you spend time with Him each day,
Planning together to unlock
Each child's treasure as you pray.

Because Mom, you are God's treasure.
And it is His destiny
For you and Him together
To be the keepers of the key.

Heavenly Father, I am entrusting my children to You. I am committing myself to work together with You to unlock the treasures You have placed in my children. I thank You for them, Lord, and for Your love for us.

II Timothy 2:12 NLT "For I know the One I trust, and am sure that He is able to guard what I have entrusted to Him until the day of His return."
