

TREASURED MEMORIES

By Paralee Eadie

God placed in our care
A bundle so dear,
A wee little angel
That filled life with cheer.

So bright and so hopeful,
A bloom yet unfolded,
A soft piece of clay
Yet to be molded.

As the bud opened
We could see in her face
A reflection of Jesus
In all that took place.

The love that she shared,
Her laugh and her smile
Drew others to her
In whom was no guile.

Then came the day
When the Father, in love,
Took our dear angel
To Heaven above.

Our hearts were broken
For we knew not why
One so full of life
Should so soon have to die.

God comforted us
In what's yet to be,
For all who love Jesus
Live eternally.

We'll soon be together,
And so until then,
God gave treasured memories
'Til we meet again.
